- All Junior Riders must have a signed Parental Consent form lodged with the Ride Organiser at the start of the ride. The Form is available from the Ride Dates page on the website.
- Due to the equine flu outbreak and Covid 19. ADR has had to rethink our ride entries and make a few changes. Until further notice we will be requiring a copy of your horses vaccination card along with your entry for every horse participating in our rides. All vaccinations must be fully up to date, and if a booster or second vaccination is required, it must have been given a full 7 days before the ride.
  If the vaccination copy is not received with your ride entry, entry will be refused and you will be unable to participate in our rides. This is to safe guard us all and I am sure we have your support and co-operation.
  Please read below NEW Covid 19 guidelines for our rides before entering.
